Hi, I'm Alexander! I'm the former President and current LIAA Liaison for the Class of 2023 (winner of last year's Class Gift competition!) as well as the Founder of OutLaud, LIAA's LGBTQIA+ affinity organization.

For those who don't know me, I was born in Atlanta, Georgia (USA) but grew up in South Africa and Kenya. While my family continued to Saudi Arabia, Thailand, and Pakistan, I returned to the US for college (via Brazil) and wound up a German major.

Above all, these experiences taught me to be a good listener, and even better connector. Should I earn your vote, I aim to listen to and connect the Board with the perspectives and priorities of Young Alumni. Specifically, I aim to represent Young Alumni's more recent experiences and deeper knowledge of the needs, concerns, and interests of the current generation of Lauderites on LIAA's Governance Committee.

For instance, I would like to create a permanent Young Alumni Board seat to liaise with alumni <10 years from graduation as well as with the current student body, ensuring their needs are more proactively met. I would also like to revisit how Young Alumni Class Gifts are solicited and structured and create more opportunities for Young Alumni to meet one another at LGAW and beyond.

With a close understanding of LIAA's pressing present needs and a clear vision for what flexibility the future demands, I aspire to serve the LIAA Board with our core values of community, diversity, and dialogue first and fore.
