

Marina Kunis Jacobson
G93, WG93

Marina is Managing Partner and Chief Investment Officer of Amicle Management LLC where she has overseen investments in both public and private markets across the full range of asset classes since 2011. Marina has over 25 years of investment experience. She was previously a Managing Director at Bear Stearns leading equity research on video game, live entertainment, and TV production companies. Prior to that, Marina worked at Smith Barney in equity research, and Salomon Brothers in investment banking. Marina also worked for HBO focusing on international channel launches in Eastern and Central Europe.

In addition to her professional responsibilities, Marina provides leadership to a variety of non-profit and community organizations. Currently, she serves on the Board of Governors of The Lauder Institute, the University of Pennsylvania's joint MBA/MA global business program. Marina also currently serves on the Advisory Board of the Greenwich Boys and Girls Club. She has previously served in leadership roles for a variety of other community and educational institutions.

Marina graduated from University of California Los Angeles with a BA in Economics magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. She has an MBA from The Wharton School and an MA in International Studies from the Lauder Institute at The University of Pennsylvania. Marina and her husband Andrew live in Greenwich, CT and are parents of four young adult children.

