

Mia Barrows

Mia worked in In-House Counsel and Business Development roles in Spanish companies Gamesa Corporación Tecnológica and Abengoa Bioenergía, and most recently was a Principal in the Corporate Strategy teams at EAB and The Advisory Board Company. She has spent the last few years working as a Covid Mamá and volunteering with a number of different organizations, including serving as an executive mentor to Latina highschool students through Code2College, and running the Spanish side of the National Voter Protection Hotline. Mia is a proud member of Lauder Spanish Track, Class of 2011. She lives outside of Washington, D.C. with her husband Steve and bilingual chatterbox, Zoe.